OUR HISTORY

KPS was owes its origins to King Transport LLC a trucking company owned by the Kingston Family. David Kingston Sr. owned a small fleet and was relying on the major service providers but found that it wasn't fiscally sustainable, he couldn't wait days or weeks to repair his trucks. The smaller service companies couldn't provide the support and the services that he required. Realizing that many other fleet owners and operators were having the same issue he retired from the transportation / delivery side and made his focus on serving our precious fleet owners and smaller O/O's.

His single service truck has grown to a fleet of service trucks with a full service shop in the near future that will carry parts for all makes and models of trucks and trailers and will have amenities such as laser alignment, filter baking ovens, and in frame repair wrapped around a 24 hour shop and parts counter.

Vehicles & Equipment

KPS started off with one medium duty truck and quickly grew to a second medium duty truck, then a third and finally a parts runner car and we continue to grow all the time.

All medium trucks are fully equipped with cranes, Miller welders, air compressors, acetylene and oxygen as well as butane torches. Computer diagnostic equipment and software, various measuring equipment.
